How to join a Zoom meeting

To join a Zoom meeting, it is useful to install the Zoom application for Windows or Mac. You can find it here: https://zoom.us/download

But you can also join in without installing the software using your browser.

For joining via smartphone, the installation of "Zoom Cloud Meetings" from the App Store or Google Play Store is necessary. After successful installation, the Zoom link will automatically open in the app.

To join a Zoom meeting, proceed as follows:

Click on the Zoom meeting link and your browser will open automatically. Next, choose whether you want to join the meeting via the installed application or the browser.

For first-time joining via Zoom application, click on "Open Zoom Meeting".

If you don't want to install the Zoom application, click on "Join from your browser".
